CABLE LETTER.

The Liberals and the Upper House—Proposed Demonstrations Against the Peers.

Silver in India—Anarchist Organ in London Suppressed—World's Fair Awards Criticized.

(Copyright, 1893, by the United Press)
LONDON, Sept. 30.—The agitation against the House of Lords has abated. This is due partly to Mr. Gladstone's cautious attitude towards the subject; partly to the absence during the holidays of the Liberal and Radical members of the House of Commons. The pause in Parliamentary activity has given the Conservatives time to collect themselves and make a show. "Of course, Home Rule is dead forever," say the Tory newspapers. "The Liberal leaders may have against the Upper House, but on sober, second thought, they dare not menace its existence or countenance a national movement to end it." The assurance with which Tory organs, like the Times and the Standard, reiterate these assertions, is not, however, well founded. Impending developments are preparing within the great Liberal organizations throughout the country to shatter this confidence. The quiescence of the Liberals and Radicals is merely on the surface. Since Mr. Gladstone made his speech the Executive committee of the National Liberal Federation have received, by letter and word of mouth, thousands of remonstrances against delaying or abating the agitation against the peers. Virtually all the Provincial branches of the Federation have made such remonstrances, and the Executive committee, consequently, have decided to call a special conference to consider the question before the regular congress of the organization. The

NATIONAL REFORM UNION.

A Liberal society of great influence in the provinces, have anticipated this conference by arranging to make at Manchester, Liverpool, Birmingham and other commercial centres, a series of demonstrations against the peers. The National Liberal club in London, meantime, will remain probably inactive, relying on the early action of the Federation's executive committee. The members, however, are ready to subscribe a large fund with which to facilitate the present movement. To this club is due the rise of the National league, whose avowed object is the abolition of the House of Lords. The initiative in forming the league came from Workingmen's Radical clubs. With all their enthusiasm, these clubs were almost without money to help them spread their ideas. They have now the assurance of help from the Liberal people and know that whatever money is needed to make the league a strong factor in keeping alive the fever of the working classes will not be wanting with this backing. The league now but a week old, gives signs of strength and practical activity, after the encouragement given them by the National Liberal Club. The main cause of this vitality is the genuine earnestness of its members. Their campaign cry is

"AWAY WITH THE LORDS!"

Their guiding principle is that the policy of waiting is a mere waste of the nation's time and energy, and an obstruction of parliamentary progress. Samuel Storey, a Radical Home Ruler sitting for Sunderland, will present in the name of the league, as soon as Parliament shall re-assemble, a vigorous petition asking for legislation against the dangers which have resulted from the continued existence of the House of Lords. To those behind the scenes, the prospect of the movement against the peers have been in no way darkened by Mr. Gladstone's attitude. In fact, many of them prophesy that, in the early future, the movement will be accelerated so as to hold it back or mask its significance. The great coal strike has now assumed a political, as well as a social aspect. The few mine owners who profess a willingness to compromise with the men, and do not stand firm on the proposal to reduce wages 25 per cent., are solely Gladstonians. On the other hand, the Tory and most of the Liberal-Unionist mine owners proclaim themselves ready for war to the death. Only one Liberal Unionist has the courage to cut loose from his Tory colleague. He is Charles Sealey, M.P. for the West Division of Nottingham, and a large owner of coal in three counties. He has given the Owners' Federation notice of his resignation, and on Monday will take back 6,000 miners to work at their old wages. No political issue has been introduced directly into the conflict, but none the less the miners have been keen to observe the political affiliations of their friends and enemies, and will not be likely to forget the Gladstonian candidates at the next general election. As soon as Parliament shall re-assemble, the Government will be asked to produce the text of the telegram by which General Wolseley, in 1882, was ordered to place the Duke of Connaught and his Guards brigade out of danger in the BATTLE OF TEL-EL-KERIR.

At the time General Wolseley said in his official report that the Duke of Connaught led his brigade gallantly to the attack, etc. This statement, however, was purely diplomacy, chiefly for the edification of the Royal family. In fact, the Guards brigade had no share in bearing the brunt of the battle. The rumor is that both the Duke of Cambridge, Commander-in-Chief of the army, and Rt. Hon. Hugh Childers, Secretary of State for War in 1882, will have to take much of the blame for having permitted the dispatch of the message in question, merely out of deference to the Queen's maternal anxiety. Dispatches from Calcutta say that the flow of bar silver to India is due partly to the demands made by the native mints and by private enterprises for the illegal coinage of rupees. As soon as the decree suspending the free coinage of silver was issued, the illegal coinage of rupees increased alarmingly and the Government has found as yet no means of abating this evil.

The police have suppressed the Commonwealth organ of the Anarchists in London. When a moderate Socialist sheet, the Commonwealth was edited by William Morris, the poet. At the time of the trial of the Wall Anarchists it was seized and the editors arrested for their violent attacks on the police, but eventually was allowed to proceed with publication. Recently it has surpassed its record in virulent and incendiary denunciations. The small group of English Anarchists, who are now in close sympathy with the continental dynamiters, are watched keenly by the detectives, but, so far, no evidence connecting them with the Spanish or Austrian dynamite plots have been discovered.

Mr. Ballu, French inspector of fine arts, has sent to the French artists' exhibition at the World's Fair, a circular letter, in which he criticises adversely the action of the American committee on awards, and contends that the superiority of French national art, as shown in Chicago, was universally recognized.

MONTREAL MATTERS.

Lady Thompson—Raising Currency—Express Messengers Will Carry Firearms.

MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—(Special.)—The s.s. Laurent, which left Liverpool on Thursday, has on board Lady Thompson, who has been visiting her youngest son at the Jesuit college at Sandhurst since the departure of the Premier for Canada.

A few evenings ago a man passed what looked like a $20 bill in a grocery store at Point St. Charles, but on presentation of the same at a bank it was found to be a raised $5 bill.

The general manager of the Canadian Express company yesterday applied to Judge Desnoyers for permission to allow their messengers to carry firearms on the trains. These men, it was explained in support of the application, often guarded as much as $250,000 on a single journey. The request was granted.

THE FLAG OF ERIN.

Disputations at Chicago as to Its Being Hoisted on the Electricity Building.

A Bloodless but Excited Controversy, Involving Numerous Orders and Countermands.

WORLD'S FAIR, Sept. 30.—There was a bloodless battle this morning on the roof of the electricity building, over the hoisting of the flag of Ireland from one of the big flag-staffs there. It was understood that by permission of the Council of Administration, the golden harp and green colors of Ireland would be hoisted on the building on Irish Day, in deference to the wishes of Chief P. Barrett, who is an Irishman. Frank D. Millet, the artist, who holds the dual position of director of decorations and superintendent of ceremonies and functions, from the time that the Irish flag in question was raised, took the position that as Ireland was not a separate nation, recognized by the United States, its flag could not be hoisted on any of the departmental buildings. Chief Justice Barrett wrote to Mr. Millet, who is an Englishman, asking him to have the Irish flag hoisted for the day. Mr. Millet refused, and the chief of the electricity department appealed to the director-general, who passed the appeal to the Council of Administration. That body took precaution to communicate with the Royal British commissioner for the purpose of ascertaining if there would be any objection to the display of that emblem of nationality. Sir Henry T. Wood, the Secretary of the Commission, replied that Great Britain had no objection and would be pleased to see the Irish flag floating with those of the nations. The council therefore granted a permit for the hoisting of the flag. Early this morning, J. Allan Hornsby, the assistant of Chief Barrett, instructed two of his men to hoist this flag, which had been given for the occasion by the Chicago Irishmen. This was promptly done, but, from his office on the other side of the highway, Mr. Millet watched the act. He summoned "Jimmy" Hunt, Captain of the the Sailor's Crew and ordered him to go up and haul down the Irish flag. Hunt had his orders and obeyed them. No sooner was the flag taken down than Chief Barrett's men raised it again. For the second time Mr. Millet gave orders to pull down the green flag. He encountered Chief Barrett's men on the roof, who told him that he could touch the flag only at his peril, but when it came to a question of physical force, the electricity man did not feel like fighting for the Irish flag, and down it came again. Then Mr. Hornsby became indignant and summoned the Columbian guards, who offered to eject Mr. Millet's men from the roof if ordered by Chief Barrett, but the order was not given. Mr. Hornsby, with Chief Barrett, hurried over to the Administration building, to find out why Mr. Millet had ignored the order of the Administration. A conference of officials was called to settle the trouble, if possible, and avoid a hostile demonstration among the Irishmen when they paraded past the Administration building. At the conference of officials, Director of Works Burnham issued an order on Mr. Millet not to disturb the Irish flag, and the flag of Erin again waved over the electricity building at 10:30 o'clock.

Bismarck and Crispi.

KISSINGER, Sept. 30.—Among the many persons who sent inquiries to this place as to the condition of Prince Bismarck was Signor Crispi, Italian prime minister. Signor Crispi's dispatch was received on Sept. 7, but no answer was sent until to-day, when Prince Bismarck personally sent an answer, saying: "I thank you heartily for the interest you take in my recent indisposition, which was painful but not dangerous. I have commenced recovering."

IRELAND'S DAY.

Fair—A Most Distinguished Gathering Present.

Speech by Hon. Edward Blake—Letter From Rt. Hon. William E. Gladstone.

WORLD'S FAIR, Sept. 30.—It was a great day for Ireland, Home Rule and the Irish at the Exposition, although a wet day. Mainly on account of the rain the parade through the grounds was a smaller part of the ceremony than the exercises in Festival Hall. There was no spare room in the great auditorium or on the tiers of seats back of the platform reserved for the chorus. A more distinguished body of Irish men and women living in the United States and the Emerald Isle, has never been seen in Chicago. The green banner and golden harp were lavishly yet artistically displayed on the platform and throughout the hall. Gilmore's band struck a lively march shortly after 2 p.m. as a prelude to the entrance of the distinguished guests. His Grace Archbishop Feehan, of Chicago, led the way, followed by Bishop Hennessy, of Dubuque, Ia.; Chancellor Muldoon, of the Chicago diocese; The Lord Mayor of Dublin, wearing the historical gold chain and medal of his office; Mrs. Shanks, wife of the Lord Mayor, on the arm of Mayor Carter Harrison; Arthur O'Connor, M.P., and Florence O'Driscoll, of Ireland; Hon. Edward Blake, M.P. for South Longford; Mrs. Peter White, of Dublin, and Rev. Father Ring, of Dublin. Lord Mayor Shanks, Mayor Harrison and Mr. Blake were cheered again and again. After playing "The Star Spangled Banner," Matthew Brady, as president of Irish Day, presented His Grace Archbishop Feehan to the audience as chairman. The Archbishop extended a hearty welcome to the Lord Mayor of Dublin.

When Hon. Edward Blake's turn came to address the great gathering he received a flattering endorsement of his course in leaving his Canadian home to fight for Ireland in the British Parliament. Mr. Blake said: "A few weeks ago, after seven years of struggle on new lines, and a debate in Parliament more severe and prolonged than any which have preceded it, you have seen the People's House in Parliament pass a measure of Home Rule, by a sufficient majority. We may expect to see it a law at no distant day." In conclusion Mr. Blake read a letter, which Mr. Gladstone wrote to him on the eve of his departure for America. The letter was read for the first time in public amid great enthusiasm. It is as follows:

"DOWNING STREET,

"WHITEHALL, Sept. 2.

"MY DEAR MR. BLAKE:—I learn with great pleasure that there is to be an Irish Day during the World's Fair at Chicago, nor am I less satisfied to know that you have undertaken to attend the gathering on behalf of the Irish people and their representatives. There could not be a more interesting, nor, except on the day of the final victory a more encouraging occasion. After several years of close and sustained struggle through the country of House of Commons was neglected last year, which passed, after eighty-two days of debate a bill for conferring upon Ireland the management, through a freely elected Parliament, of her own domestic affairs, and when at the close of next week the bill will be rejected by a large majority of the House of Lords, we shall know—the people of Ireland will know—the world at large will know—and even the House of Lords will know that this rejection will mean no more harm than a dilatory vote. You are about to address Americans, who in all ranks and in all parts of their magnificent country have shown an active and almost universal sympathy with Ireland, and more especially Irish Americans, through whose energy and irresistible affection for Ireland has been effected the most remarkable oceanic migration ever known in the history of the world. You are in a condition to point out to them these two things:

"First—The distance which has been actually travelled over between the physical misery and political depression which marked the early years of the country, and the victory recorded last night is immeasurable.

"Second—The distance between that recorded victory and the final investment of Ireland with full self-government and control over her domestic affairs is not only measurable, but short. It was unanswerably observed during our debate that the recent success has been brought about by a change of opinion, where opinion has been most hostile, viz., in the English, Scotch, Irish and Welsh votes. They were with us in 1886, but we stood in a minority of nearly 120. It has been a signal and favorable change in England that has converted this minority into a majority of forty-four for Home Rule.

"England still exhibits her reduced majority, to intercept one of the greatest benefits ever conferred, not only upon Ireland, but upon her. In this attitude she is alone among the peoples of the English speaking race. She has not yet quitted, but she is quitting us. The last struggle still remains, and like the former struggle, it will be great, and it will demand the friendly efforts of all those, wherever placed, who under God, have lifted this great cause out of the abyss and set it on an eminence, from which there remains but a single step into the promised land. I cherish the most sanguine hope that the conduct of the Irish nation, when their great object has been attained, will fulfil every reasonable hope cherished by those who have aided and will convert its present enemies into friends.

"Yours faithfully,

"W. E. GLADSTONE."

"God speed the day when Irish will govern Ireland," exclaimed Mr. Blake fervently, retiring to his seat amid a storm of cheers and hand-plaudits. The place of Congressman Bourke Cochran, of New York, was taken by Arthur O'Connor, M.P., who was hampered by a bad cold. His remarks were brief.

THE BOSCOVITZ DEPARTS.

Included in the steamer Barbara Boscovitz's cargo when she sailed for Northern ports last evening was a brand new boiler and some other machinery out of the Albion Iron Works shops. The boiler, which is a duplicate of that in the little steamer Angerona, is for a new tug boat now being built at Georgetown for a Japanese. Part of the machinery for the new craft, such as the compound engines, is already on the scene, and is considerable of a novelty in the North. The hull of the new steamer is being built on the model of a Japanese tow boat, and the steamer will, judging from its machinery, be a fast and trim little vessel. The Boscovitz's freight also included a large quantity of lumber and several cases of dry goods for Kincodith. This, along with over $20 which Purser Friend of the steamer collected on his last trip north, will relieve the inhabitants of Kincodith considerably. They are rapidly re-building the place, and are now in much better circumstances than they were a few weeks ago. As passengers, the Boscovitz carried North by her Rt. Rev. Bishop and Mrs. Ridley, Miss West, Mrs. Martin, A. Smith, A. G. Harris, J. Kerby, S. Gray, T. Robb and wife, and nine others, four of whom are prospectors going to Shoshorby Bay.

THE "GRANDHOLME."

A San Francisco dispatch of yesterday says: The British steamer Grandholm sailed from this port yesterday for Puget Sound, it was at first supposed without having cleared at the Custom house. It appears she was ready to sail on Thursday evening at 6 o'clock, but was notified that the Customs officers desired to search her. The captain replied that he would delay sailing until 8 o'clock yesterday morning. At that hour she started for the North, after clearing at the Custom house and the British Consulate. When she reached the canal she was signalled to stop, but paid no attention and kept on her way. The Customs officers state that if the department had had any larger vessel than the Hartley in port they would have fired a shot across her bows and, this failing to bring her to a stop, would have fired on her.

SHIPPING RETURNS.

The month of September has been a busy one in shipping circles, for tonnage which has entered port has not only been increased largely by the return of several of the sealing fleet, but also by the arrival of numerous large ocean vessels. Appended are the returns for the month:

THE "UMATILLA" ARRIVAL.

The steamship Umatilla arrived, after a rough passage, from San Francisco yesterday afternoon, being nearly a day overdue. On coming up the Straits she spoke the sealing schooner Mary Ellen with a catch of 2,000 odd skins, and sighted a loaded English vessel, supposed to be the Formosa, now long overdue at this port from Liverpool. The former wished to have a tug-boat sent out for her. The Umatilla's freight for Victoria was only 93 1-5 tons, which is much smaller than it has been on many previous trips.

THE FAVORITE'S RECORD.

The steamer City of Kingston completed her one thousandth round trip between here and the Sound last evening. During the time she has been running she has become very popular and is a favorite passenger boat, her time of arrival here having, until recently, been as regular as clock work. To-day the Kingston will bring an excursion to Victoria from the Sound cities.

THE "QUEEN'S" PASSENGERS.

The following cabin passengers are booked to leave for San Francisco on the Queen, this morning: W. E. Murray, L. E. Williams, J. J. Levy, W. Wells, J. Frankel, Mrs. McWoodard, Mrs. E. Leverett, Mrs. M. Bromilard, J. G. Wright and wife, Rev. J. W. Ellsworth, R. Fletcher, L. F. Clark and wife, W. B. Dolan and wife, H. C. Davies and O. E. Kewine.

MARINE NOTES.

Ship Glory of the Seas, bound to Port Angeles, passed through the straits yesterday. The ship Potter is reported off Race Rocks, drifting with the tides, there being no wind. The American brig Geneva, 440 tons, has arrived at Hastings from San Francisco, to load lumber for Sydney. The American schooner Echo arrived in from Fairhaven, her home port, yesterday morning, with a load of hay. The Quadra leaves for Barclay Sound tomorrow. During her stay in port she has been made resplendent with a fresh coat of paint.

NOW WELL AND STRONG.

Sirs.—It is my privilege to recommend B. B. Russell, for two years I was nearly crippled with an inflammatory disorder of the kidneys, from which six bottles of B. B. Russell's Kidney Pills cured me. I am now well and strong, and gladly recommend the B. B. Russell's Kidney Pills to all who are afflicted with this complaint. I had almost given up hope.

DEATH, NOT SIBERIA.

A Russian Officer Shoots Himself Rather Than Suffer His Sentence.

WARSAW, Sept. 30.—Captain Tomashev, of the Russian artillery, was arraigned before a courtmartial here to-day to answer charges preferred against him of ill-treating a sentinel and forging documents. The evidence was overwhelming against the accused, and the court speedily found him guilty and sentenced him to exile in Siberia. As soon as the finding of the courtmartial was announced, Captain Tomashev drew a revolver and shot himself dead.

PRINCETON.

PRINCETON, Sept. 18.—E. Allison continues to make drives to Hope for the B. C. Cattle Co., which ships some fifteen hundred head of cattle per season from the ranges here.

Mining matters have been rather lively, several parties having arrived here lately from the Coast cities to examine and locate claims, on the benches along the Similkameen river.

The Government are extending the wagon road from Nicola towards Granite Creek. The appropriation to be expended is $2,000, which it is expected will carry the road to within seven miles of Granite Creek.

Mr. Henriksen, a mining engineer of Vancouver, accompanied by Mr. Peebles, is engaged in examining ground with a view to hydraulic mining. One claim Mr. Henriksen wished to get was, it is said, staked by another party while he was walking over the ground preparing to put in his stakes.

Mr. Thain, accompanied by Capt. Scott and party from Vancouver, are here to secure hydraulic ground on the South Fork of the Similkameen river. It is understood they will make arrangements to further prospect the ground with a view to opening up the claims at an early date.

The Similkameen Gold Gravel Exploration Co. have had a force of men on the claims owned by the company at Princeton, sinking shafts and a tunnel on the bed-rock, where the high bank has broken off squarely, facing the South Fork. The bed-rock being about forty feet above the level of the river, affords ample opportunity for setting sluices, dumps, etc.

KASLO-SLOCAN.

(From the Kaslo-Slocan Examiner.)

In the World's Fair claim of the Noble Five group a six-foot vein of exceptionally high grade ore, considerably stained with copper, was struck last week. An assay of an average specimen was made Wednesday by Bucke & Haultain, which yielded the enormous result of 1084 ounces of silver to the ton. The ore is very soft and somewhat decomposed, and contains an antimonial copper ore. At the present price of silver this ore will yield about $1,200 to the ton.

A sample test from the Eureka group of mines, owned by McDonald and McPhee, assays 114 ounces in silver and 77 per cent. lead to the ton.

J. H. Johnson and J. F. Nelson report a strike on Lake creek, a little over fifty miles from Kaslo. They discovered seven parallel ledges of galena bearing quartz, containing all grades of galena, from cube to fine steel galena and peacock. They located three claims.

Grouse and chickens seem to be more plentiful than ever in these parts. Deer also are beginning to make their presence more conspicuous.

Never before were choke cherries, hazel nuts and other small fruits peculiar to the locality more plentiful than at this season. Nearly every man you meet is high choked to death with choke cherries.

Last week Henry Oliver, employed at the Columbia flouring mills, was caught in the driving belt of the machinery which drew him twice around the shaft, breaking his right leg at the ankle and tearing the flesh all loose as far as the knee. Oliver died about eight hours and a half after the accident. There was an inquest held on Saturday by Dr. Clark, of Kamloops, when a verdict of accidental death was returned.

The Growth of KASLO this year has been unprecedented in the history of British Columbia.

In one year the Forest Growth has been replaced by streets lined with substantial buildings.

The population has increased in one year from 300 to 3,000, and is being added to at the rate of nearly 100 per day.

The immediate construction of the KASLO-SLOCAN RAILROAD will cause development that will increase the population this year to twice 3,000.

It is the supply point and outlet for the now famous mines of the Slocan, ore from which has been shipped via Kaslo all winter.

SISTER SOCIETIES.

A Busy Week Behind Closed Doors—
Grand Officers of the S. O. E.

An Interesting Programme of Intended Events in Various City Lodges.

THE past week has been an unusually busy one in the numerous secret societies; details of the work done are given below:

C. O. O. F.

Fernwood lodge will hold its quarterly meeting next Friday evening, when all members and also visiting brethren are cordially invited to be present. Very important business will be brought before the lodge; besides alterations and amendments to the by-laws, committees will be appointed to provide a series of entertainments during the winter season. A very pleasant feature of the evening's proceedings will be the banquet tendered the members by the officers, as will also be the pleasure of meeting P. D. G. M. Bro. J. Ramsey, who will be present and no doubt give the brethren a short account of the doings of the Grand Lodge at the last session.

A. O. U. W.

The members of Western lodge, No. 7, intend entertaining their friends in right royal style at Victoria West hall, Monday evening, October 9. Plenty to eat and a good programme is promised by the committee on arrangements. A novelty is promised in the way of free admission and no collection.

I. O. O. F.

Acme lodge No. 14 conferred the first degree on a candidate at the meeting Monday evening. There were several songs and literary selections by brothers. The lodge has been making good progress numerically during the present term.

Colfax lodge No. 1, Sisters of Rebekah, will give a ball, sociable and supper at the Odd Fellows' hall, on Tuesday evening, October 10. An enjoyable entertainment may be expected; good music will be provided. Commencing this week the various I. O. O. F. lodges in the city will meet at 7:30 o'clock—half an hour earlier than during the summer months.

Columbia lodge, No. 2, last Wednesday evening, had no work to do outside of routine business—rather an unusual occurrence of late—and the team took advantage of the circumstance to perfect themselves in the floor work of the third degree. A good practice was had, and the team will doubtless acquit themselves with additional credit next Wednesday evening, when the third degree will be conferred. Members of sister lodges are always welcome at No. 2.

K. O. P.

Sunset lodge, No. 10, met on Tuesday evening last and transacted routine business. The question of providing lodge room entertainments during the coming winter was discussed, and a committee was appointed to carry the proposition out.

Far West lodge, No. 1, had an enjoyable meeting on Friday evening, when, in addition to their own members, there were a number of brethren from Sunset lodge present. A capital programme was provided. This was the first of the series of entertainments the lodge proposes to give during the winter.

Victoria lodge, No. 17, held a regular meeting on Wednesday evening, at which there was a very large attendance. There were several applications for membership received, and afterwards the Page and Esquire ranks were conferred, the work keeping the members until after midnight. Victoria Lodge, No. 17, although the youngest in the Province, has already a membership roll of nearly 100, and new applications are received at every meeting. The charter will be closed very soon now, so that those who purpose joining should send in their names at once.

A. O. F.

A meeting of Court Vancouver will be held on Monday night, in Foresters' hall, for the transaction of general business and the initiation of several candidates.

Y. M. I.

The regular meeting of Seghers' Council, No. 85, was held on Monday evening, when one candidate was initiated and several applications were received. A special meeting will be held to-morrow evening, and afterwards the society will hear an essay by Mr. D. McBrady. It is stated that arrangements are being made to have a social and entertainment in the near future.

L. O. L.

Victoria Ladies' True Blue lodge No. 37, L. O. L., was organized on Friday night by the D. D. G. M., J. B. Saint. The following officers were elected: W. M., Mrs. J. Walsh; D. M., Mrs. Braden; R. S., Mrs. Pelkey; F. S., Mrs. Walker; treasurer, Mrs. Caldwell; chaplain, Mrs. Hatch; D. of C., Miss M. McAfee; lecturer, Miss McDonald. After the business of the evening was finished, refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time was passed.

NOTES.

The members of Court Islander, No. 477, I. O. F., will hold their first regular meeting of the month, on Wednesday, 4th inst., in the St. Andrew's and Caledonian hall, Blanchard street. Members are requested to note the change of the hall.

The Sir William Wallace society decided at a meeting held on Friday night to hand over the portrait of Sir Alexander Mackenzie to the Pioneer society until the new parliament buildings are ready. As Pioneer hall is opened daily, the public can have an opportunity of viewing this picture with those of other pioneers.

Supreme Grand President Elliott and Supreme Grand Secretary Carter, of the Sons of England, spent yesterday very pleasantly in the city and left on the steamer in the evening for the Sound. They go East from Tacoma, returning to Ontario by way of Detroit, and will visit the lodges in Western Ontario en route. This is the first time any of the grand officers of the S. O. E. have paid an official visit to the Coast, and local members expect it will assist them very materially in building up their lodges.

PORT HOPE'S MYSTERY.

Mrs. Hooper Buried Under Very Singular Circumstances.

PORT HOPE, Ont., Sept. 30.—The excitement created by the mysterious death of Mrs. Hooper on a train, culminated in the exhuming of the body, which had been buried in Port Hope, and the holding of an inquest on the remains. The inquest was held to-day by Dr. Corbett, coroner of this town. The jurymen having been sworn, were taken to view the corpse, the face of which was considerably decomposed. The coffin was much too small and the limbs had been bent up to get them in. It was also clad in the clothes which the woman had died in, even the shoes being on the feet. Dr. Douglas, of Cobourg, and Dr. R. L. Corbett, of Port Hope, were instructed by the coroner to make an autopsy of the body. Government Detective Carpenter, of Montreal, is here to-day working up the Hooper case. Hooper's wife died and was buried under rather mysterious circumstances.

STOCKS IN NEW YORK.

A Very Irregular Front at the Opening, but Firmer Towards the Close.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The stock market presented a very irregular front at the opening, some of the shares showing an advance of $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent., while others showed a loss of anywhere from $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent., General Electric leading the decline. The bank statement, despite the fact that it showed a much heavier increase in reserves than had been expected, failed to excite the slightest effect on the market. During the week the local institutions gained \$8,268,900 in cash, of which \$9,145,100 were legal tenders. The banks are now \$24,120,550 above legal requirements, against \$4,392,400 last year. In the final trading distillers displayed strength, recovering $\frac{3}{4}$, and the market left off firmer in tone. The sales were 107,445 shares. Closing bids: Canadian Pacific, 74; Central Pacific, 20 $\frac{1}{2}$; Wells Fargo, 130; Great Northern, preferred, 110; Missouri Pacific, 23 $\frac{1}{2}$; Northern Pacific, 6 $\frac{1}{2}$; do., preferred, 21; Oregon Navigation, 41; Oregon Improvement, 9; Pacific Mail, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$; Southern Pacific, 17 $\frac{1}{2}$; Union Pacific, 20 $\frac{1}{2}$; Western Union Telegraph, 81 $\frac{1}{2}$; Bar Silver, 74 cents per ounce.

DISCONTENTED YUMAS.

Indian Uprising in Arizona—The Leaders Promptly Arrested and the Trouble Over.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Secretary Hoke Smith has received information that there is trouble brewing in the Yuma Indian reservation, South-eastern California. It was reported yesterday that the school building had been burned by the Indians. The agent has for some time past been having trouble with Miguel, the former chief of the Yumas, who has persistently tried to prevent Indian children from attending school. He has also been guilty of repeated acts of insubordination such as cutting green timber on the reservation contrary to orders and inciting others to resist the authority of the agent. Miguel is said to be the leader of the worst element on the reservation, and if the report that the school buildings have been burned is true, the act was undoubtedly done by him or his confederates. In view of all the facts the agent thought that the presence of troops would act as a restraining influence, so he asked the department to urge that a troop be sent from the nearest post at once. This request, with the Secretary's endorsement, has been sent to the War Department. Acting on the advice received the War Department has decided to order Brigadier-General Ruger, commanding the department of California, to send a company of troops to the reservation.

YUMA, ARIZ., Sept. 30.—The leaders in the threatened Indian uprising have been arrested and lodged in jail. There are no present indications of trouble. In fact it is the general opinion that the further presence of soldiers is unnecessary.

Wiggins' Rival.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—A new weather prophet has entered the field. He is W. B. McCarthy, of No. 1709 Master street. His predictions for the first fifteen days of October are as follows: Weather will be cool and frosty for the first three days of October throughout the country. It will be warmer and more genial and generally fair on the 4th. We will have fair, warm weather on the 5th and 6th. The weather on the 7th, 8th and 9th will be cold, raw and unsettled. The whole country will experience cold and very unsettled weather on the 9th. It will begin to improve on the 10th, and there will be generally good weather. On the 11th, 12th, 14th and 15th it will be fair. The storm period will be between the 2nd and 8th.

Senate Amendments.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Notices of two important amendments to the silver purchase repeal bill were given in the Senate this morning. One was by Mr. Wolcott, Republican, of Colorado, and provided for a return to the States interested of the amount of cotton tax collected from them during the war. The other was Mr. Perkins, Republican, of Colorado, which provides for the coinage of silver of American production at the existing rate, the treasury to retain seigniorage of 20 per cent. It also provides that hereafter that there shall be no gold coins minted of less than $10, and no bank notes issued for less than $5, and for a monetary commission of five experts. The resolution was taken up and Mr. Chandler, Republican, of New Haven, addressed the Senate, arguing that the commission was unofficial and unauthorized and its doings were discreditably partisan.

Small Lot Household Furniture, Stove and Pipes, Crockery, etc., etc. Cooking Utensils,

This Property is within easy distance of many of the most important Gold, Silver and Coal Mines in West Kootenay. The population of this district will increase this year by at least 10,000; the area of farm land is very limited, and from this it may be fairly asserted that beef and all classes of farm produce will find a ready and lucrative market. The soil is the best bottom land, and the locality is one of the few places in the Province where so large a piece of good farm land can be found in one block. A river runs through the property, and rainbow trout are plentiful and afford capital sport. Deer abound in considerable numbers. Bear, Wolf, Coyote and other large game are to be found in the hills. There are two creeks recorded and belonging to the estate, one flows all the year round. Limestone and brick clay are to be had in the valley.

The Cattle are well bred; a much larger herd could be farmed with the place. The bunch grass on the hills in the vicinity covers many thousands of acres, and is available to the few land owners in the valleys. All buildings and fences about the farm are in good order, and farming operations can be gone on with at once; about 180 acres of ploughing have been, so far, provided for this year's work.

The Climate is not severe, the land being about 1,100 feet above sea level; the station was for many years the winter quarters of the H. B. Co.'s pack trains. There is a weekly express in and out. Goods and supplies at wholesale can be procured on order and delivered in 48 hours.

The Title is by grant from the Crown, and is free of all encumbrances. Immediate possession can be given.

Important Railway works are now in progress within moderate distance, and two railway lines have been run to pass close to or through the estate, which can be reached in the spring in three days' journey from Victoria.

The South West Kootenay District, British Columbia, judging from the actual ore products of the mines this winter, is destined in the next year or two to become one of the richest and most important mineral centres in the world. Statistics show, that although the district is in its primary stage, the mines have developed ore veins rich enough to warrant the investment of over a million dollars. When these mines come to be worked systematically, there will be an Influx of Population, which will require beef and farm produce in large quantities. The limited quantity of really good farm land in the district to supply these requirements makes this Victoria, B. C., Jan. 17, 1893.

To Dean & Cryderman, druggists,
GENTLEMEN,—With much pleasure I add my testimony to your valuable Marvellous Rheumatic Cure. For three months I suffered terrible pain. Could not move only by the aid of two sticks. I have only taken two bottles of the medicine and two of the liniment, and I can now go without sticks, and hope after the third bottle to go to work.

Yours very thankfully,

No. 48 Oswego street, corner Michigan street.

If you have Rheumatism, Lamé Back or any Severe Ache or Pain, The Marvellous Rheumatic Liniment will Cure it quickly.

THE CITY.

THERE was no Police court yesterday—a somewhat unusual occurrence.

Lucky numbers in Morris' Saturday night's drawing—3141, 2568 and 2678.

NOMINATION of a successor to Ald. G. A. McTavish at the Council Board takes place to-morrow.

AN exceptionally good dinner will be served to-day at the Hotel Victoria. Patrons of this popular house will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

A ROOF fire, caused by sparks from the smokestack of the Victoria Electric Light Works, was extinguished at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, before any damage had been done.

The contractor for the new police barracks finished up his work yesterday afternoon, everything being completed to the satisfaction of the building inspector and in accordance with the contract.

A SPLENDID programme will be presented in connection with the harvest home festival at St. John's church on Tuesday evening. The order of the service will be published in full on Tuesday morning.

MR. J. P. WALLS has been engaged to defend the East Indian seaman Wilson, charged with the murder of his shipmate, Jones, on the bark Rathdown, and went over to the penitentiary yesterday to consult with his client as to the programme of the defence.

THERE are now no bookings at the Victoria for the current month, both "Urania" and "Wolves of New York," having cancelled their dates. Manager Jamieson is now negotiating for the appearance in both Victoria and Vancouver during November, of the great Fanny Davenport in "Cleopatra," "Fedora" and "La Tosca."

SPECIAL meetings of the Salvation Army, under the direction of Staff Captain Margetts, who is making a visit to Victoria, commenced last evening, and will be continued to-day and to-morrow. The meeting last night was well attended, and quite a sum was realized from the special collection at the door. The Army in Victoria is in a very satisfactory condition.

AN entertainment will be given on Thursday evening next, the proceeds of which will go towards the funeral expenses of Timothy Riley, formerly of H. M. S. Warship, and erecting a tombstone. The affair will be in the rooms of the Pastime club, at the corner of Yates and Government streets. The committee in charge are Ben. Carter, M. Smith, T. Healey, E. Hatton and Mike Quiglan.

JUDGE BOLE, who arrived a few days ago from Ottawa on his way back from the old country, has evidently lost no opportunity of making comparisons favorable to his adopted province. The Citizen says: "The Judge is a native of Ireland, with the Irishman's veneration for the 'old sod,' but as a Canadian he has no opportunity of sounding the praises of the Canadian Dominion during his stay in the Green Isle. Here in the Canadian capital, however, he scruples not to uphold the province of British Columbia as the most favored spot on the continent."

THOUGH Mayor Beaven has written to a Nanaimo inquirer that all the people who were carrying on business in Victoria as astrologers, seers, fortune tellers and clairvoyants, have given up the city, the fact is that these and kindred occupations are still the means by which some temporary sojourners make their living. As the Mayor passes to and from the City Hall, he may see, within a couple of blocks, one very conspicuous sign announcing the presence of a "Life-Reader, Palmist and Astrologist," and there are constantly appearing notices in one form and another of the advent of a new revealer of things hidden from the ordinary citizen.

MR. R. T. ELLIOTT, who has just returned from Barkerville, had the pleasure, if such it may be termed, of passing through the first genuine snow storm of the season on his way down. He reports that Mr. A. D. Whittier has already arrived at Williams creek with Mr. Cox the expert, who will at once examine the valuable property which Mr. Whittier represents on behalf of English principals. Mining is also engaging considerable attention on the South Fork of the Quesnelle. Political meetings have lately been held at the 150 Mile House, Quesnelle, Barkerville, Soda creek and Clinton, and Hon. Mr. Davis is now engaged with the assize work at Kamloops. He may be expected home on Wednesday.

SITKA advices brought by the U. S. revenue cutter Rush to San Francisco show that Judge Warren Truitt has at last given his decision in the Cequldam case, delivering the vessel and cargo forfeited to the United States government, for the alleged violation of customs regulations in transferring cargo inside of the three-mile limit. Such a decision by the Sitka court having been anticipated, preparations had been made for an appeal to the United States Circuit court at San Francisco, which will be immediately entered. The steamer, and its cargo of sealions and stores, were many months ago released on bonds totalling about $100,000, which represented the value of the threatened forfeiture. The cases of the schooners Alexander and St. Paul, also on trial at Sitka, are still pending.

ON the bulletin board at the City Hall Ald. Bragg has posted a notice requesting the Mayor to call a public meeting to discuss the matter of assessments for improvements in the newly acquired portions of the city. This notice is the outcome of a meeting held by the residents on the Oakland estate at the residence of Andrew Ohlson, nurseryman, with Watson Clark and B. H. West officiating as chairman and secretary, respectively. Ald. Bragg was in attendance, and endorsed the protest of the chair man and other speakers against the proposition that any improvements made in that section should, as in other parts of the city, be charged against the property immediately benefited, under the Local Improvement by-law system. The meeting resolved that the system is unjust to the new additions to the city, and that a resolution be forwarded to the Council, asking that immediate steps be taken to repeal it. The meeting also expressed itself in favor of better fire protection and of a school for that district.

BISHOP PERRIN will preach at St. John's church on Tuesday evening, when the Harvest festival service will be repeated.

The celebrated Spanish Students Concert Company are in the city to give a series of concerts. They have achieved great success on their present tour.

THE dance under the auspices of the Hebrew Ladies' Association, fixed for to-morrow, promises to be a very pleasant affair, as very general interest has been taken in it. Experience has shown that the new hall of the association is splendidly adapted for affairs of this kind.

PILOT THOMPSON reports finding on Race Rocks the remains of a fine large cockatoo which was shot by the keeper of the light-house there the other day, as he supposed it was a white hawk after his chickens. The cockatoo is supposed to be one of several brought over on the Australian steamers, which had escaped from its owner.

The James Bay Athletic Association has kindly consented to postpone its smoking concert, announced for next Saturday evening, in order that it might not interfere with the similar event under the auspices of the Victoria Rugby Football Club. The J. B. A. A. concert will probably be held a fortnight from next Saturday.

A SOCIAL is announced for Tuesday evening next—to be given by the Young People's Union in the schoolroom of Emmanuel Baptist church—which promises to prove a genuine novelty of the most enjoyable character. Plantation songs will be sung to the accompaniment of "de ol-banjo," and bananas, watermelons, etc., will be served as refreshments.

A NEW industry, which the traffic conditions have made a more likely field for speculation in Toronto than would be the case in Victoria, has sprung up in the Queen City, owing to the numerous casualties in connection with the electric railway there. This is the issue of "a trolley car accident policy, special for ladies," which insures a return of $2,000 at a cost of $2 a year.

THE Supreme court's long vacation has at last come to a close and legal lore and eloquence, which for two months has been religiously bottled up, will now pour forth in a torrent. Thanks to the new court rules this is the first court vacation the legal fraternity in British Columbia have had, which was a court holiday in anything more than name. Now that it is over there will be a large number of cases set down for trial as soon as possible and the next three or four months will be especially busy ones.

ARRANGERS of the suggested preparation by the Board of Trade for meeting the Finance Minister when he comes on his tariff inquiry mission, it is interesting to note that the Winnipeg Board have appointed a special committee to report to the Council upon the tariff, and this report the Council will carefully consider before presentation, so that the declaration contained in it may be absolutely reliable. The Board will arrange with the representatives of the several commercial, industrial and manufacturing interests to present their views.

DURING the month of September $1,204 50 was the total of fines imposed and collected in the City Police court, the cases being thus described in the record: Drunks 79, in possession of intoxicants 22, supplying intoxicants to Indians 5, obstructing a police officer 1, malicious injury to property 2, assault 6, using threatening language 3, furious driving 1, violation of civic by-laws 6, obtaining money under false pretences 1, house-breaking 3, violation of the Liquor License Regulation Act 1, vagrancy 12, fighting 2, larceny 4, refusing to pay wages 1, aggravated assault 1, and receiving a Government rifle from a militiaman 1.

In their addresses to the local lodges of the Sons of England, the visiting Grand officers strongly advised the members to take an interest in military affairs, particularly as the head of the local volunteers—Lieut.-Col. E. G. Prior, M.P.—is one of the prominent members of the order, and in thus fulfilling their obligations as good citizens as they would be strengthening the hands of one of themselves. The Grand officers told of the movement now going on in Toronto, where a garrison artillery corps which for years has become defunct is to be re-organized by the Sons of England there, who have signed the roll of recruits in such numbers as to make the success of the movement assured, and have consequently received the sanction of the Militia Department. They pointed out that in Victoria a special opportunity is now afforded by the fact that the recently authorized increase in the strength of Col. Prior's battalion makes it possible for a larger number to join at once than can likely be accepted at any one time in the future.

Paris Panels $4 per dozen, and for this month only, at Skene Lowe's Studio, No. 63 Government street.

Thanks

to the ladies who have so patiently awaited the arrival of our second shipment of jackets and mantles. They are a little late, it is true, but have indeed been worth waiting for. Our buyer has excelled all former efforts, and, without doubt, these constitute one of the most stylish consignments of goods ever received in British Columbia. We have marked the prices away down. Call early at the Stanley House, 55, 57, 59 Douglas street, corner of Fort.

W. S. HAMPTON & Co.

Important Notice.

The old and well-known firm of Lange & Co., Watchmakers and Jewelers, have removed their place of business from Government street to No. 86 Douglas street, where they will continue to sell off their stock at cost. All repairs of watches, and other orders sent us will be attended to as usual.

LOOKED LIKE A SKELETON.

GENTLEMEN.—Last summer my baby was so bad with summer complaint that he looked like a skeleton. Although I had not much faith in it, I took a friend's advice and tried Dr. Fowler's Extra of Wild Strawberry. He soon got better. I truly believe it saved his life.

FESTIVAL OF FIRST FRUITS.

Harvest Home Services to Be Held To-day in Numerous Victoria Churches.

Decorations That Are Worthy of Admiration—St. Andrew's Church Pastorate.

HASTE and beautiful are the decorations in many of the churches of Victoria, where hymns of thanksgiving will to-day ascend to the Giver of a bountiful harvest. The festival of the first fruits, ancient in its origin, becomes, as the years go by, more generally observed by all denominations, and certain it is that never before has it been so widely honored in Victoria as it has been and it is to be this present autumn. To-day there will be harvest festival services in no fewer than four of the Victoria churches, which have been appropriately adorned, and where special music will be sung and special sermons preached, all having reference to the ingathering of the harvest.

St. John's church, the pretty little edifice at the corner of Douglas street and Fisgard, may be mentioned first, for the ladies of this congregation are second to none in the elegance of their decorations on such occasions. This year they have labored longer and harder than usual, and the result is a picture to feast the eyes of an artist. Grain in the sheaf has been adroitly utilized, and a chancel screen in golden wheat and barley is a conspicuous feature of the adornment of the edifice. The supporting pillars of the chancel screen rise from mounds of rich hued flowers and autumn leaves, and hold aloft an airy lattice work of gleaming grain, while similar decorations of harmonious design are seen at either side of the altar and on the choir rails. The pulpit and reading desk are turned with flowers and glistening fruits; the windows are wreathed with grain, the centrepieces forming pyramids of flowers and fruits; while the font is a picture in itself, the base a mass of crimson and orange autumn leaves, the shaft gracefully entwined with grain, and the basin the centre of a great bouquet of grapes and foliage and flowers. The decorations are not over done, and all are chaste and in harmony, as the large congregations who fill the church to-day will unanimously admit.

No special musical service is announced for the morning, but in the evening Mark's service in B flat will be given, the anthem being Stainer's "Ye shall dwell in the land." Three organ solos will be played during the service by Mr. Bridgman, the organist of the church, the voluntary "Allegretto" in B minor by Alex. Guilman; the "Fantasia" by Bennett, and the "Grand Offertoire" in F major by Buxtehude.

In Christ church cathedral the decorations which contributed in a great measure to the success of last Thursday evening's Harvest Festival still remain in place, and to-day's music will be a repetition of Thursday's programme. In the morning Ketchman's Te Deum will be sung, with tenor solos by Mr. Aspland and Mr. Russell, and bass solo by Mr. Kent, the anthem also being appropriate. The evening anthem will be Barnaby's "Ye shall go forth with joy," the tenor solos being taken by Mr. Russell and Mr. Aspland. After the offertory, Stainer's "Honor the Lord" will be sung, with bass solos by Messrs. Wollaston and Kent. The harvest festival services held during the past week in St. Mark's will be repeated at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., the decorations previously described still remaining in place. No special announcements are made for the other Episcopal churches—St. James', St. Luke's, St. Saviour's, St. Paul's and St. Mark's.

The Centennial Methodist church also presents the appearance of a beautiful garden to-day, the efforts of the decorating committee of ladies who have been busy during the week having proved eminently successful. Harvest Home music will be sung to-day, and Harvest Home sermons preached by Rev. Solomon Cleaver, of the Metropolitan Methodist church, at 11 a.m., and by Rev. Dr. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian congregation, in the evening. Rev. Joseph Hall, president of the Conference, preaches in the morning at the Metropolitan church, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Cleaver, filling his own pulpit in the evening, and taking as the theme of his discourse: "An Unpopular Subject." In the James Bay Methodist church, Rev. E. Robson being out of the city, the morning sermon will be by Rev. E. C. Bryant, and that of the evening by Mr. J. Calvert. Rev. George H. Morden preaches at both services in the Victoria West Methodist church, his subjects being respectively: "Obstacles to a Full Christian Experience," and "Is Christianity a Failure?" There will be the usual services in the Esquimalt Methodist church.

Large congregations will no doubt attend at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church for both services, as a peculiar interest attaches to the present visit of Rev. Dr. Smith, who will occupy the pulpit during October, and who, it is quite possible, will receive the call to the pastorate. The reverend gentleman is a veteran of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, having for many years presided over large congregations in Belleville, Hamilton and Guelph, of which latter city he has been a resident for the past thirteen years. He acted as "supply" for Rev. Mr. Macleod not long ago, and consequently is no stranger to the congregation, who will during the next few weeks at least enjoy his ministry.

In the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Campbell's morning subject will be "Justification by Faith—an Apostolic doctrine which the accumulated rubbish of centuries had almost buried out of sight when Luther cleared away the rubbish and brought about the Protestant Reformation." In the evening Rev. Joseph Hall of the Centennial Methodist church will preach.

In St. Paul's Presbyterian church the preacher of the day will be the pastor, Rev. D. MacRae; in the Central Presbyterian church, Rev. P. McF Macleod will conduct all services, the subject of the evening sermon being, "What are these wounds in Thy Hands?"

In Calvary Baptist church, Rev. J. E. Coombs will preach at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., in the evening, continuing his series of sermons on "Eminent Women of the Bible." Rev. P. H. McEwen occupies the pulpit at Emmanuel church, morning and evening. Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge will preach both morning and evening at the Church of Our Lord (Reformed Episcopal), the subject announced for the morning sermon being "Fallen from Grace."

In the Y. M. C. A. hall a church choir and short addresses will be the attraction at 4 o'clock. The music will be made a special feature.

HENRY YOUNG & Co.

"L'ANARCHIE."

A Spanish Editor Arrested—Excitement in Vienna—Public Buildings Guarded.

The Chicago and New York Plotters in Communication With Those in Europe.

MADRID, Sept. 30.—General Campos is not yet considered out of danger. The arrest of Senator Prieto, editor of El Ideal, an advanced Republican paper in Madrid, and formerly an officer in the Spanish army, who is charged with complicity in the attempt to blow up the house of ex-Minister Canovas del Castillo in September last, caused a sensation here as well as in Madrid, where he resided.

VIENNA, Sept. 30.—The excitement over the discovery of the Anarchist plot is still at fever heat. Four Anarchist workmen were arrested yesterday, and more arrests are hourly expected. A large number of those known to be connected with Anarchistic societies have hastily left the city. All public buildings are carefully guarded by the police. This precaution will be continued as long as Parliament is in session. The police are in possession of facts of the greatest interest to the police of several European capitals, as well as Chicago and New York. They decline to divulge the particulars, but it is known they have established beyond a doubt connection between the Austrian plotters and the Anarchists of Chicago and New York.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—When shown the cablegram from Vienna regarding the Anarchist plots, a Chicago official, now in this city, said it was well known to the Chicago secret service police that the Anarchists of Vienna, Paris and London were in constant communication with those in New York. He declared a plot similar to that in Vienna was unearthed in Chicago by the police a year and a half ago, but nothing was said about it for fear of creating a scare and injuring the World's Fair. The "Reds" were arranging to blow up the city hall and several buildings in course of construction at the World's Fair grounds. Superintendent of Police McClaughy by vigorous action nipped it in the bud.

Detectives attended a number of anarchist meetings in Claybourne avenue and West Lake street. At the latter a woman fanatic volunteered to enter the council chamber when the city council was in session and explode a bomb among them. She said she was willing to sacrifice her own life for the good of the cause. At the Claybourne avenue meeting arrangements were being made to blow up the World's Fair buildings. Superintendent McClaughy had a number of the leaders brought to his office. He told them if any dynamite was thrown he would pay little attention to fanatical underlings, but would arrest every leader and agitator, and they would take part in the biggest hanging that ever occurred in Chicago. This plain talk had the desired effect and the "Reds" became less active. In the information gathered then were letters from anarchists of Paris, which led to the discovery that the bombs used by Ravachol in the Rue Clichy, Paris, explosion were furnished by Chicago anarchists. M. J. McClaughy opened communication with the prefect of police of Paris, Superintendent of Police Byrnes, of New York, and Scotland Yard, London, with the result of a compact that each should keep the others posted as to the movements of the "Reds" in their respective cities, whenever one went from one to another. Through this compact Maj. McClaughy was notified of the fact that Prince Krapotkin, the Russian anarchist residing in London, had arranged to come to Chicago, and was enabled to prevent it. The anarchists threatened to blow up the residence of Hempstead Washburne, then Mayor, and he had detectives concealed about his house for months.

NYE AT THE FAIR.

Jim Kelley Induces the President of a Defunct Bank to Pay Up.

Some Remarks on the Art of Stuffing—Bill as a Magistrate.

[Copyright, 1893, by Edgar W. Nye.]
RUE DE PLEASURE, Sept. 19, 1893.

MY DEAR HENRY—It is a good thing that Napoleon Muzzy, or Pole, as we used to call him, came to the fair. He is that much ahead. His bank at Eagle Run, back home, has busted. He has got his round trip ticket bought and paid for and money enough to get back home all right, but the bank will not even allow him to use up a new check book that he got just before he left there. He says that no bank will ever get him again. He is tolerable hot about it and says that all a bank is for is to take the deposits of honest men and loan them to "men of push and enterprise" that have a good time at other folks' expense and then take paris green, saying, "Adoo, kind friends, I'm going home."

AT THE FAIR.

Pole Muzzy says he's about decided to go on a prolonged debauch when he goes home, where it won't cost so much. For 20 years he has sort of yearned for an alcoholic outing, but did not have a real good excuse. Now he feels like "letting the tail go with the hide," as he tersely puts it. You know Pole was always terse.

He's the man that wrote home from the war that he was just going to the tonorial artist to get his tonsils removed. I've known many of a man in my life, Henry, but Pole Muzzy rather overstates anybody I ever knew in his easy flow of language.

For the word finally, for instance, he always said finally. When I dug my celebrated Hoosick well, he said I would finally get it done, and I did. I got it in the nose—financially.

He's the man that rides around in the set down chairs, as he calls them here at the fair—meaning the sedan chairs.

Speaking of bank failures reminds me of Jim Kelley—Black Jim, we called him. He failed in the lumber business in the fifties up on the Nimmycoogin, but in 15 years he has managed to pay up everything but a claim of $18 due to Lo Bartlette. One day he met Lo on the street and gave him a check for the amount, for he had deposited it for that very purpose, Lo being out on the Trim-belle buying stove bolts.

The bank is long since sunk in oblivion, having gone into that business about half an hour after Black Jim put his money in there. Running across Lo a little while after, he gave him a check for the amount.

"Why, that won't go," says Lo. "The bank has closed its doors."

"What!" says Jim, getting a shade or two darker.

"Why, she's a wreck," says Lo, "Notice on the door says she may go into liquidation, but at present it is deemed advisable, owing to stringency of the panic, to close."

Jim went over to the president's room and knocked sort of gentle as he could, considering that he had a list that could have knocked down a week's receipts here at the fair if he's been that kind of a man.

"Who's there?" was the statement of a voice inside.

"It's me," says Jim, "Jim Kelley—Black Jim Kelley of the Nimmycoogin—and I'm in something of a hurry."

"Well, we're very busy now, Kelley. Can't you come again this evening?" exclaimed the demonized but silvery voice.

"That will be too remote; I am very busy myself," said James the brunette, jerking an iron hitching post out of the sidewalk and sanding his hands, like the man at the bat. "Now is the accepted time. Will you open the door, or shall I open it?"

The president with the bullion voice opened it, for it was a good door and belonged to him personally. It was not bank assets.

Black Jim turned the key in the door after he came in and began killing flies on the counter with his iron hitching post.

"What do you want of me?" exclaimed the president, taking a large sight draft out of a tall bottle marked "Mucilage," but smelling more like the matriculating room of a bachelorette institute. "What are you intruding here for?"

"I wanted to set you with regards to a certificate of deposit I've got here calling for $18."

"We cannot pay it. Everything is gone. We have taken cash on deposit and loaned on approved security, but we cannot realize at once on our securities. All we want is confidence."

"So you are one of these here confidence men I've heard tell of, are you?"

"No, no; not that; not that! Oh, me Gawd, that I should be called a confidence man by a low, brutal man with a retreating forward and whiskers on his hands!" With this the president put the end of his nose on a new blotter to hide a massive tear.

"Well, I'm here," said Kelley the black, "to get them $18 or to leave you looking like a Hamburg steak. Eighteen dollars is not much to you. You give more than that every little while toward making the meathen a free moral agent, but I have been 20 years paying up my debts acquired by reason of a rise in the river which took my logs to Corpus Christi when I had agreed to deliver same to parties at Stillwater. Eighteen dollars will relieve this mental strain. Otherwise I shall paper this room with your poor, perishing body and very likely asphyxiate the cat with your soul."

The president hesitated a moment, and then with a sigh took a roll from his bootleg and paid Jim his little old $18.

"You will not mention this on the street, of course," said the president, with a bright, wan smile, slapping Jim on the shoulder and raising a cloud of dust.

"No," said Jim, giving the president a hearty slap on the back that shook a lung loose and made it fall the whole length of the poor man's chest, "not till I get there." And he left the iron hitching post on the president's desk and came away. When the crowd broke in, they found it there, like a mighty paperweight, lying across a doctored statement.

Black Jim has realized twice since on certificates of deposit. In one case it took what silver the bank had left to keep the president's brains from getting tanned.

We have changed our meal place from Beloit, Wis., one of the northern suburbs of Chicago, and now feed at a private house not far from the grounds. It saves car fare and gives more time to see the exhibits, which are out of sight and no mistake.

I like the specimens of taxidermy best of all. I can stand by a stuffed bear and enjoy it for hours.

Taxidermy originally comes from the two Greek words, taxis, "arrangement," and dermy, meaning to skin. Thus we have skin arrangement, or skin game, where game is thus prepared. I tell you this because a man can go through college and yet miss a few things. I knew a college graduate once that could speak nine languages, but he did not know any better than to go skunking at night in a dress suit.

In this country taxidermy was introduced in 1828 by a man named Scudds, who began the establishment of a museum containing rare upholstered beasts.

Sometimes the work of a taxidermist is not successful. I knew of an army officer who used to fill up wild animals with arsenic and autumn leaves, but they kept getting riper and opening up like a boil of cotton, so that the servant had to keep putting back the autumn leaves.

The officer also poisoned three private soldiers by keeping his arsenic in solution in a deserted gin bottle.

He stuffed a mountain lion or puma, once and placed him on exhibition at headquarters. The commanding officer used to shy as he passed by it as a delicate compliment to the taxidermist, but he almost knew it was not a live animal.

No one was fooled by it except a man who had been seeing things for over a week in the guard house while suffering from alcoholism.

The lion was represented to be in a crouching attitude, and as time went by he seemed to crouch more and more, same as an ice cream elephant does under the steady gaze of the fresh air child.

He had widely distended jaws and fiery gums. Farther back one could discover the autumn leaves.

Spiders spun their webs across the roof of his mouth and from fang to fang, and mice made their nests and reared their young in his abdominal cavity. I never saw anything that seemed to teach me as he did the terrestrial nature of earthly things. Moths gave him a bald spot on the stomach, and one eye came out and gave the other one a keen, searching glance.

That was years before you had taken your place in the great economy of nature.

I was a justice of the peace, marrying people ever and anon—people who afterward introduced the half breed into the aristocracy of the west.

A friend who showed a good deal of genius in this matter gave me a stuffed bird which combined the aerial and amphibious qualities of this beast. It had the fierce intellect and carnivorous head and back of the eagle and had his tail loaded with lead to keep this massive arrangement from tipping him over. He had the feet of a sage hen, the torso, or trunk, of the canvasback duck and the tail of the blue jay.

It was great sport to get old hunters to look at it and tell me what kind of a bird it was. I collected in costs $ 80, resulting from hand to hand arguments between sportsmen over this bird, and would have collected much more, but the constable could not collect mileage and so disclosed the truth at the end of two years.

I remember a bitter and acrimonious fight that grew out of the discussion of this bird one bright May morning between a man named Lyons from Vinegar Hill and another named Soiled Murphy of Taj Mahaland, since deceased.

Mr. Lyons was in the office as a witness in another case, and Murphy in his great specialty as a drunk and disorderly. We had just concluded the case, and I had stepped down from the wool-sack and hung the judicial ermine across a chair, intending to put some more wood in the stove, when the attention of Soiled Murphy was attracted to the bird.

I asked him, as an old sportsman, what he thought it was. He stated that it was what was called the canvasback hell diver, with abnormal head, but Lyons claimed that it was an alkali kingfisher.

Other hunters who had hunted free drinks all the way from Julesburg to Yuba Dam had told me how they had killed hundreds of them on Pawpaw creek and south of Dirty Woman's ranch.

Soiled Murphy said they used to just swarm on Hutton's lakes while they were molting, and lived on horned toads, which they swallowed whole for the delicious joy they experienced as the toad went down.

The feeling got more partisan till Lyons made a pass at Murphy with a box of fresh sawdust that had been put there when I opened court. It was obtained from Valentine Baker, a collector of abandoned furniture and bad debts.

Soiled Murphy then hit him over the organ of firmness with the judicial scales, which I had thoughtlessly laid across the wool-sack.

In the afternoon I tried the case, Lyons trying to get a change of venue on the ground that I was prejudiced. I denied the motion, telling him that I never allowed anything to prejudice me in a case. I was not only perfectly free to try it, but would rather try it than not.

Having seen the fight how could I be prejudiced? Lyons was found guilty, for why fine a man like Soiled Murphy, who had no money?

I was always against capital in such cases and rarely fined a poor man. I was always the friend of the poor man anyway, and where I could not get the cost from one of the parties I had to rely on county orders at 60 cents on the dollar.

I was re-elected twice before my political policy was discovered.

Before I leave I may write you another letter from here regarding the fair, giving you more information regarding it.

The dance I spoke of was pulled just before I could get there. If I had known it was really not a moral jig, I never would have thought of attending, but Pilcher, our schoolteacher, who is here at the expense of the school district obtaining advanced methods and studying rational educational progress, said it was instructive and pleasing.

To-morrow we visit the street in Cairo and ride on a harellip dromedary from Ephesus. Respectfully yours, your father,

BILL NYE

THE ORPHANS' HOME.

First Meeting of the Board of Management in the Handsome New Building.

More Money to be Raised to Complete the Work—General Business Transacted.

A combined meeting of the directors and lady managers of the British Columbia Protestant Orphans Home was held yesterday afternoon at the new building on Hillside avenue. This was the first occasion on which the new Home was used, and possibly this fact, in addition to the large amount of important business to be dealt with, caused keen interest in the meeting, as was shown by nearly every member being present.

The President, Mr. F. H. Worlock, presided, the others in attendance being Messrs. Jas. Hutcheson, treasurer; Mr. Charles Hayward, secretary; Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge, Rev. Dr. Campbell, Rev. Solomon Cleaver, Messrs. P. R. Brown, Noah Shakespeare and Henry Jewell, Mrs. Cridge, Mrs. Sargison, Mrs. Earle, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. Hutcheson and Mrs. Adams.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Bishop. After routine business, the question of more assistance in the management of the new Home was taken up, and it was decided to advertise for the necessary help.

After some discussion it was next decided to ask the Ladies' committee to report at as early a date as possible upon the requirements in the way of furnishings, etc., for the new buildings, so that the Board may know what they may have to provide.

The offer of the Albion Iron Works Co. to put a range in the building was accepted. Several applications for the admission of children to the Home were considered and referred to the reception committee, with power to act.

The honorary treasurer reported that about $8,000 would be required to complete the payments on the new building and to purchase the necessary furnishings. After discussion it was decided to authorize the officers to negotiate a loan for this amount.

The offer of Rev. D. A. MacRae to provide an entertainment in aid of the funds of the Home was accepted with thanks, and a committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The members named on this committee were Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Hutcheson and Mrs. Williams.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge moved, seconded by Rev. Dr. Campbell, a vote of thanks to the members of the Building committee, who have had in hand the carrying out of the details of construction in connection with the new Home. Both the mover and second spoke in words of warm praise of the untiring exertions of the committee, who had done so much work, and now had the pleasure of seeing the results of it. The resolution was unanimously carried.

The directors feel confident that the new Home will be taken possession of by November 1. They will then have ample accommodation for some years to come, and will be in a much better position than ever before to carry on the good work of caring for the fatherless and the orphan.

To give pills and purgatives for sluggishness of the liver is like giving a weak man whiskey to keep him working. They excite the digestive organs to overwork but leave them weaker and less able to perform their functions. Eseljay's Liver Lozenges assist nature to do its work and at the same time strengthen the digestive system. They are 25c. a box at drug stores.

THEIR NEW DRESSES.

CREATIONS FOR FANNY DAVENPORT
AND LILLIAN RUSSELL.

Two Artists Who Know What to Wear.

The Collet Is Now the Fashionable Fad.
Simple Rules For Making Three or Four
Kinds of Their New Trimming.

[Copyright, 1893, by American Press Association.]

The collet is now the fashionable fad in the way of trimming of ordinary dresses, and it is also designed for the purpose of affording something that is next to nothing to wear around the neck and shoulders. There are many varieties, some of them more remarkable than beautiful and others so pretty and so stylish that one forgets what collets are. They are really only make-believes, but as they are so charming let us admire them and get one if we can, each of us. If we cannot buy one already made, perhaps we can make one ourselves. We can if we know how and are willing to try.

Let me tell you all how to make three or four styles. One—and perhaps two—of the most striking of them all has a ripple cape in the back and comes down to a deep point in front. This was made of corded black silk, and had no ornament save a Brandenburg to fasten it. The points are cut on the straight and the rest in a semicircle, and this is joined by a seam in the back. It is lined with taffeta in a bright or opalescent color. The edge at the top is simply turned in and hemmed, and as it meets half way down the bust it seems to give a V shaped effect to the waist of the gown. The outside and linings are cut just alike and the edges stitched. The seam is then turned where the neck part is hemmed, the edges are slightly pressed with a not very warm iron and the fastenings sewn on. It need not take over an hour's work, and the style is very good.

Another collet is arranged in two plaited ruffles, one deeper than the other, and the ends pointed and reaching the waist, where they hang naturally crossed. This need not be lined if made of middling thick goods, and the edges are bound with ribbon of as happily contrasting shade. Cashmere, black or dark brown, with green ribbon is very pretty. Of course it is understood that the green is to be of a soft and artistic shade, though, to be sure, almost all shades are used now. But we are supposing that the lady is a woman of genuine taste. The collar is lined with silk, the color of the ribbon and box plaited so that it stands up as a pierrot ruffle.

Another very ornate collet has 18 pieces of black silk cut in shapes something like a baseball bat. The two front ones showing any oily margin, and if painting becomes a real fashion instead of being something that is only seen on the gowns of the favored few it will open the door to great possibilities and also the door of hope for the young artist whose forte lies in painting flowers.

Lillian Russell has a new pale blue satin gown for home, and on this is painted a bewildering maze of tall grasses, from which peep scarlet poppies. The different greens in the grasses and the leaves of the poppies are most artistically treated, and the flowers look as if they grew there. The painted pattern extends all around the skirt. The sleeves are pure, which fall back, leaving the round white arms exposed, except for an undersleeve of spangled blue tulle. A wide scarf of that is tied across the bust and falls to the feet. With this is a tiny tea cap, a bunch of spangled tulle as big as an ordinary rosette, and on top of it one of open poppy and one half open bud. This contrasts well with the abundant tresses of the fair singer.

And here let me say that this hair all belongs on that lady's head. Many persons assert that she wears a wig, but it is not so. All the daughters in the Leonard family have magnificent hair. Lillian Russell's real name was Helen Leonard until she married Abraham, and later Solomon. She knows how to dress well and does it. So, though she makes no pretense to lead the fashion, it shows that painted silks will certainly find favor with those who can paint and those who can afford to pay an artist.

Some of the new plaids are frightful, the pattern is so large and striking, but others again are very handsome. I saw one that was very ladylike, and at the same time it was in the height of style. It was of gray twilled cheviot, with bias diamond shaped plaids formed by white lines, three one way and two the other. There was something very refined and delicate about this plaid. It is a pity all are not as neat and refined. The dress of which it was made was cut surplice waist over a V of white lace over pale blue silk. The sleeves were in soft double puff, the forearm piece being also of plaid. The bottom of the skirt was perfectly plain, save for three lines of white castle braid.

The hat to go with this dress was of lustrous gray straw, turned up to tricorne, with three turquoise velvet rosettes and two fancy plumes of gray chicken feathers. The saw tooth straws, I think, will be worn quite far into the autumn. They did not make their appearance until summer was well advanced, and they became so popular at once that the fancy for them will be long dying out. Some are trimmed quite plainly, and others have perfect nightmares of feathers upon them.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

Not a New Thing.

Modern critics of ladies' full dress costumes would have us believe that what they call "the exposure" is a recent innovation.

If a traveler from a distant country, unfamiliar with the English and French fashions, were to contemplate the representation of a ball dress of 40 years ago he would be puzzled to account for the remarkable shape of the ladies of that period. If the traveler were anything of a naturalist, he would set them down in his own mind as belonging to a new species of the genus homo.

BALL DRESS OF 1851.

Looking at the prints of the period, we should think that the artists intended to convey a satire on the ladies' dress if we did not today frequently meet with such figures in real life. The costume, with much pretension to elegance, exhibits most of the faults of the modern style of dress. It combines the shockingly décolleté feature with the pinched waist, and even the hoopskirt of that period was in recent danger of resurrection.

A Woman Parliamentarian.

Lilian Cole Bethel has compiled and published a "Compendium and Question Book of Parliamentary Law" for the use of clubs and organizations unfamiliar with parliamentary usage. She has carefully prepared it from the standard works on the subject, such as Cushing's, Robert's, Neely's and Smith's. The necessary parliamentary programme for small clubs and societies has been simplified and arranged in a way that will be easily understood.

LARDEAU

NORTHEAST ARM UPPER ARROW LAKE.

The Townsite Company have entered into a contract to build a wharf to deep water at lowest stage, at the foot of Victoria avenue. This will cost about $4000.

The C.P.R. Telegraph Company are building their through line from Revelstoke to Nelson, Nakusp and Kaslo via LARDEAU CITY, where the office for the Lardeau and Fish Creek Districts will be situated. It is expected that this line will be opened in a few weeks.

A Mining Recorder is stationed at LARDEAU—a convenience for the prospectors of this region. Many rich strikes have recently been made on Fish Creek, a few miles from LARDEAU. A steamer calls three times a week at LARDEAU.

The charter for the Lardeau & Kootenay Railroad has its commencement at LARDEAU CITY. This line will undoubtedly be built in the near future, as it is the only route to the famous Lardeau Mines on Trout Lake and the shortest and easiest pass to Kootenay Lake.

Prospectors and capitalists visiting the Lardeau Country will find the best Hotel Accommodation in West Kootenay at LARDEAU CITY. It is the entrance point to the Lardeau, Fish Creek and Duncan River Mines, and will save time, labor and money to prospectors who desire to visit these sections.

LARDEAU CITY has much in its favor. It is affected by the prevailing dullness at present, but its situation is such that it must become an important trading point, and grow into a considerable town.

Investors in West Kootenay should seek particulars about LARDEAU and the District tributary to it. Any information will be furnished upon application to the undersigned.

A REMUNERATIVE INVESTMENT.

THE POLICYHOLDER'S LETTER.
NEW YORK, March 7, 1893.

HENRY C. LIMA, Esq.,
General Agent.

DEAR SIR:—I have no objection to your quoting the following facts if they will be of any service to you.

In 1873, I took out Tontine Endowment Policy No. 78,620, with the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of the United States, for $5,000, and have paid in all $4,768 in premiums to the company.

On the maturity of the Endowment the company paid me $7,985.20 in cash.

As evidence of my satisfaction with this return (which is certainly liberal, considering the fact that it is in addition to the protection furnished by the policy for 20 years) I have taken new assurance with the company for $10,000.

Yours Very Truly,
W. A. Ross.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Recreation Grounds for Victoria—
Our Lacrosse Boys En Route Home.

Philadelphia Cricketers Make a Magnificent Score Against the Australians.

Athletics of all kinds have been and are prosecuted under difficulties by the young men of Victoria, owing to the fact that this city, though the capital of British Columbia, and its largest and wealthiest city, possesses no suitable recreation grounds such as Vancouver has in Brockton Point, Westminster can point to in Queen's Park, and even Nanaimo and Northfield can now lay claim to. That such a state of things should continue is not the intention of a large number of prominent citizens, who have followed the successes of the Victoria lacrosse team abroad with patriotic pride, watched the races of the Canadian Wheelmen's association at Westminster with keenest interest and wondered why the cricket, football and gun clubs have not combined long ago for mutual advantage. It has been suggested that a public meeting be called at an early date of all thus interested, to discuss the advisability of providing a recreation park within easy access of the heart of the city and suitable for all field sports. The plan, roughly outlined, is to lease a suitable piece of land for a long period, with option of purchase at a stated price, form a joint stock company of all friends and patrons of sport, level and prepare the field, construct a racing path, and build the necessary grand stands and training rooms, etc. At the preliminary meeting a joint committee, composed of representatives from the various clubs interested, could be appointed to make the necessary inquiries and report. It is to be hoped that this meeting will be called during the present week. Delay has been the order long enough; it is now time to act.

LACROSSE.

THE WELCOME TO "OUR BOYS."

The good work done in the way of arranging for a welcome to the returning lacrosse boys advances apace. In addition to the names published yesterday, those of Mr. William Templeman and Mr. B. H. T. Drake appeared on the "Premier" subscription list of Friday night; these were unintentionally omitted yesterday. The ladies have held their organization meeting and outlined a reception which cannot but meet with favor. It is proposed to give a ball in honor of the returning champions, and during its progress an excellent opportunity would be afforded to present the souvenir medals. All who desire to contribute toward the purchase of these latter may leave their subscriptions with Mr. D. R. Ker, who is kindly acting as treasurer of the fund, or with Manager William Christie, of the C.P.R. telegraph. The proposal to hold a reception will doubtless be abandoned in favor of the ball, but Manager Jamieson has shown his hearty friendship by tenting the use of the Victoria theatre free of charge should it be required. The boys may be expected home by Thursday next, so there is no time to lose.

THE TEAM AT WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 30.—(Special)—Six of the Victoria lacrosse club, which has just completed a most successful Eastern tour, arrived in this city this morning. The members of the team now here are: W. H. Cullin; Frank Cullin, C. L. Cullin, Stuart Campbell, Harry Morton and W. E. Ditchburn. Other members of the team will reach here Tuesday morning, when the whole party proceed West together.

MOONLIGHTERS WIN.

WESTMINSTER, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The junior lacrosse tournament in connection with the fair came to an end to-day, the Moonlighters defeating the Westminster Juniors in four straight.

THE PRESS MEN HUMILED.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The lacrosse match between teams of insurance men and newspaper men resulted in a victory for the underwriters by two goals to one. Frank Miller and Wm. Taylor acted as captains and A. E. Goodman refereed the game.

AQUATIC.

SUPPOSED PRIZE MODEL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Much interest centres in a model yacht race which is to take place at Oakland to-morrow. Captain Pike, of the British ship Gatoek Rock, has constructed a model of a yacht which he claims can beat anything in this country, and John Sloan, water front boatman, will pit against it a model of the yacht America, winner of the America's cup. They have a bet of $500 on the result of the race.

RUSSELL TAKES THE RACE.

WESTMINSTER, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The single scull race, in which E. Mallandaine, of Victoria, came in ahead on Thursday, was rowed over again to-day by order of the referee in consequence of the foul between Blackburn and Russell. These two were on this occasion the only contestants, and Russell, who comes from Vancouver, defeated Blackburn, the Westminster man, by two lengths.

(When the race was rowed on Thursday, Mallandaine had a lead of fifteen lengths at the turn, but took the Westminster man's water, his own course being blocked. A protest was entered and the race ordered to be rowed over. Unfortunately the Victoria man could not remain over to win his race the second time, as he certainly would have been able to do had he rowed in the form showed by him on Thursday.)

FOOTBALL.

YESTERDAY'S RUGBY.

In the practice match of the Victoria Rugby Football club at Beacon Hill yesterday afternoon, victory rested with the Vice-captain's team, after a hard fought game. With two good practices next week the Victoria fifteen should be in good condition for the match with the Navy next Saturday.

THE ALBIONS.

A meeting of the Albion Football club will be held on the evening of Tuesday, October 3, in Prof. Foster's rooms, Toronto street, James Bay. All members are requested to attend, and others interested in the game are also invited.

THE RIFLE.

RECORD FOR RIDEAU RANGE.

The highest score ever recorded at Rideau range, Ottawa, the place where the Dominion rifle matches are fired, was made last week by C. S. Scott, the secretary of the Ottawa Rifle club and a member of the 43rd Battalion. Firing with a Martini, under regulation conditions, at "Queen's" ranges—200, 500 and 600 yards, he secured in that order of ranges 32, 34 and 35 points, the last being the "possible," making a total of 101 out of 105. The highest previous record on the range was 99, which like Mr. Scott's, was made in practice, not in a regular match. The best Queen's range score on record, duly authenticated, is 103 out of 105, made in England a few years ago.

TROUBLE IN THE TWELFTH.

A rising out of the recent Dominion rifle matches at Ottawa there is serious trouble amongst the shooting men of the Twelfth York Rangers, Toronto. It seems that the shooting members having elected one of themselves captain he entered a team from the regiment as a representative team from the district, in a match for district teams only. Another officer of the Twelfth, being senior to the team captain, was invited to be one of a committee to choose a district team from all the corps entitled to representation, and accepted the invitation. The purely Twelfth team were allowed to shoot under protest, but subsequently were ruled out as entered without authority. The incident led to a right royal row between the two officers interested, and some of the non-coms. also became mixed up in it, leading to charges of insubordination which are now under investigation. The Twelfth secured six out of the first nine places on the Bisley team for next year, an unexampled performance, which has attracted the attention of riflemen all over the Dominion.

NEW RIFLE ASSOCIATIONS.

The formation of a Victoria rifle association is under discussion, and the prospects are that organization will soon be effected. The idea is to have regular practices, weekly or otherwise, for silver spoons or other inexpensive but useful souvenirs. As there is no good local range available now, the practice will at the outset have to be confined to the shorter distances, for which Clover point can be used with comfort. Some of the officers of the B. C. G. A. are interesting themselves in the organization of a battalion rifle association, which would be entitled to an annual grant from the Militia Department, conditional upon first holding a regular prize meeting.

THE B. C. R. A. COUNCIL.

A meeting of the council of the B. C. R. A. will be held shortly to wind up the business of the year, which has been one of the most satisfactory in the history of the association. As two members—Messrs. Turnbull and Langley—will in all probability go with the Bisley team of next year, it is suggested that the B. C. R. A. should affiliate with the National Rifle Association of Great Britain, and thereby secure the right of representation in the match for which the £100 presented by the Prince of Wales is the chief of the valuable series of prizes.

CRICKET.

QUAKERS PLAY GREAT CRICKET.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 30.—(Special)—The second day's play in the cricket match between the Australian and Philadelphia teams ended at 5 o'clock, this afternoon. The home players to-day completed their first innings for a total of 525, the greatest innings ever seen in this country in a first-class match and the biggest score ever made against the Australians, the previous record being held by the All England team, which scored 483 runs in the first innings of the Oval, London. The Philadelphians did the finest batting ever seen here, only two men failing to score double figures, and one, F. H. Bohlen, distinguished himself by scoring a "Century" with 18 to spare. A feature was the hitting strength shown by every man who went in. Captain Blackburn tried no less than eight bowlers, all being hit freely.

When the Australians started their innings late in the afternoon fully 15,000 persons were gathered around the ropes and on the stands. A big score was looked for, but much to the surprise of the crowd, few of the visitors crack players were disposed of cleverly without being allowed to do even ordinary scoring. When stumps were drawn, after a little over an hour's play, the visitors had made 125 runs for four wickets. Veterans George Giffin and Graham were defending the wickets and gave promise of a long stand. Giffin had scored 62, twelve of which were made on two successive hits over the fence, a batting feat not often accomplished on the Elmwood grounds.

Play will be resumed on Monday morning. The Australians have agreed to remain here on Tuesday if necessary to finish the match.

THE WHEEL.

CLUB MEET AT VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 30.—At the meeting of the Vancouver Bicycle club to-day, fast time was made and track records were broken, and the local wheelmen are enthusiastic in consequence. Frank Barker, a new candidate for laurels, showed splendid form, and gave promise of making some of the fast ones hustle to hold their honors. Laurensen rode strong and fast; he won the half mile pneumatic in 1:19, the track record, beating Barker and Clabon; also the three miles pneumatic from Milne, Dean and Barker, the last two getting 150 yards. The wind up was very close in this event, Milne closing up a big gap and finishing only one wheel behind. Time—8:51.

In the half mile dash, solid and cushion tire, Clabon (30 yards) won from Walton Laurensen won the one mile for pneumatics, Barker (40 yards handicap) finishing second, and Dean (50 yards) third. Time—3:02½.

In the five-mile, scratch, solid tires, Vancouver's flyer, Laurensen, again won, leading the following string at the finish: Milne, Deane, Clabon, Walton and Mason. Clabon won the lap prize, finishing first fourteen times. Time, 18:01.

Deane won the three-mile solid tire in 9:50, against Milne and Clabon; also the one-mile solid (fifty yards) against Laurensen (scratch), and Clabon (sixty yards). Time, 3 minutes.
